

THE WHO I AM PROJECT

WOULDN'T YOU LIKE TO KNOW

Some choose to remain unidentified and/or work under a pseudonym. Some people may be curious about other people and make an effort to uncover their identities. As we have found out, identities can be about multiplicity and are not always easily categorizable. For this project, create a self portrait that resembles what you have discovered about the complex nature of identity.

ARTIST

Banksy

Graffiti Artist

Banksy is a pseudonymous English graffiti artist, political activist, film director, and painter. His satirical street art and subversive epigrams combine dark humour with graffiti executed in a distinctive stencilling technique

ARTMAKING

Anonymity Selfie

photography, photoediting software

Instructions

1. Take a selfie.
2. Using photoediting software and apps to crop, filter, etc. alter your selfie so that your image is unrecognizable.
3. Post the staged and edited selfie to Instaram using #WhoAmProject.
4. What have you taken away about identity from this project? Caption your post with your answer.

Suggestions for photo editing apps visit:

Pixelot

<https://play.google.com/store/apps/details?id=com.bybeardy.pixelot&hl=en>

Blur Image

<https://play.google.com/store/apps/details?id=com.inglesdivino.blurimage&hl=en>

Untitled self portrait, Banksy. 2005. Created for Wired Magazine.