

THE WHO I AM PROJECT

Strong Understanding	Average Understanding	Weak Understanding
<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• The participant investigates identity widely and deeply offering new and personalized insights into identity.</li><li>• The participant produces imaginative responses to the prompts.</li><li>• The participant explores multiple perspectives including, but not limited to, a personal exploration of identity.</li><li>• The participant reasons that the use of different settings, lighting, props, costumes, and makeup accounts for different expressions.</li><li>• The participant gives a fully supported explanation and interpretation of identity through their posts, which includes photographs, captions, and hashtags.</li></ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• The participant investigates identity offering somewhat uncommon and personalized insights into identity.</li><li>• The participant reasons that the use of different settings, lighting props, costumes, and makeup accounts for different expressions.</li><li>• The participant gives a reasoned and convincing explanation and interpretation of identity through their posts, which includes photographs, captions, and hashtags.</li></ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• The participant's posts are disconnected to the idea of identity.</li><li>• The participant describes posts, which includes photographs, captions, and hashtags without evident purpose.</li></ul>